26th May 2023

Dear parents and carers,

Only one more half term to go until the summer holidays! It has been a busy half term with lots of focus on summer sporting events, retreats, GCSE and A-Level exams and continuing to develop as a school.

It has also been a bit of an emotional rollercoaster with significant bereavements that have affected our school community. One thing that is clear is the ability for this community to come together and support each other, practically and in prayer.

The feedback we have had this half term has been overwhelmingly supportive and we thank you for the partnership that we have with you. On this note, we will feedback the outcome of the uniform consultation, which ended today, with you upon our return from the half term break.

This week we had our Year 11 farewell assembly, they are now on study leave and information has been sent out regarding the arrangements for their revision and exams over the coming weeks. Their approach to their exams has been exemplary. Considering what they have endured over the last three years, it is impressive to see their focus and dedication to doing well in their exams.

We look forward to welcoming all the students back on Monday 5th June refreshed and ready to learn.

As ever please do read the notices below.

Have a blessed and restful half term.

Andrew Bull
Headteacher
