

12th January, 2024

Dear Parents and Carers,

Thank you for your understanding these past weeks. I share your frustration with having to change plans that you have made. As a parent I know, first hand, how difficult it is to motivate our children when they are working from home, staff are doing their best to maintain the high standards whilst teaching some students remotely. This week has been one that has been punctuated with frustration with having to change plans regarding the return of students down to factors beyond our control.

As a reminder here is the plan for the coming week.

Week beginning 15th January

Onsite

Year 12 - Only those that have external exams in January come in for lessons as normal

Year 10 - exams

Year 11

Year 8

Offsite

Year 7 at home all week – live lessons

Year 9 at home all week – live lessons

Year 12 at home all week – live lessons

Year 13 at home all week – live lessons

Following a number of meetings yesterday and today it looks like there is significant movement in the right direction and we will make great strides with the building work. If there are any changes to plans I will let you know as soon as I am able to.

My deepest personal thanks go to the whole school community - pupils, staff, parents, governors and contractors - who have rallied with such unity, and so uncomplainingly and purposefully to current challenges.

In addition to much else that is positive, events of recent weeks have reinforced at least one point: that the true foundations of this School remain spiritual, and therefore indestructible. We will get to where we need to be very soon.

Well done and thank you.
